

About the Author

A master communicator and interviewer, Nigel is passionate about distilling the behaviours and knowhow of hugely successful people into practical and lasting strategies and insights.

Having interviewed many of Australia's top entrepreneurs, business leaders and owners. In April 2013, as founder of Ingenious Oz Project he began on a series of solo motorcycle trips throughout Australia to discover ingenious Australians and share their stories. His quest is to inspire the ideas of a Nation.

He has spoken at countless conferences and his work has taken him around the globe. He has advised Ministers of Parliament, C-Suite executives, and entrepreneurs. Organisations in a myriad of industries including IT, Franchise, Events, Marketing, Finance, Pharmaceuticals, Government and Telecommunications have benefited from his experience and expertise.

Nigel built Absurd Entertainment, one of the first entertainment companies to design and create entertainment specifically for events. He worked extensively on the 2000 Olympics, was entertainment advisor at the Paralympics, grounds entertainment producer of the Sydney Royal Easter Show for 6 years and still holds the accolade of being show director for Australia's largest ever corporate event in 2005.

He is an alumni of the Disney Institute, Ambassador for Start-up Australia, a Ted-Xer, and author of two books with a third in production titled "Game of Inches"
